

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CONTACT: (513) 509-7829

Hesch Named “Leading Lawyer” for Sixth Consecutive Year

William E. Hesch, Esq., CPA, PFS, was recently recognized as a "Leading Lawyer" in the Trust and Estate area by Cincy Business for 2010. This is the sixth consecutive year Hesch has received the coveted distinction, which is determined by the ballot of local attorneys.

“This designation reflects excellence in estate planning,” Bill comments. “My background as both an attorney and a CPA makes me an integral professional who is able to address complex legal matters from accounting, financial, and tax perspectives.”

In private practice since 1993, Bill Hesch, is the CEO of both William E. Hesch Law Firm and William E. Hesch CPAs, LLC. His legal practice focuses in the areas of tax and estate planning, Medicaid and elder law planning, probate, buy/sell agreements, and assisting clients in the formation, growth, and the buying and selling of their businesses. His CPA firm provides comprehensive tax services for individuals and businesses, and includes Scott Champion, a CPA accredited in business valuation.

The “Leading Lawyer” designations appear in the February / March 2010 issue of Cincy Business, a magazine dedicated to the passions and pursuits of tri-state professionals with a readership exceeding 45,000.

###